Explore China on the trip of a lifetime in your own classic car!

16 Days of China

in your own Classic Car

Your journey begins

Your journey begins from the moment you turn the key in your Classic Car and the engine roars into action.

Your start off from Shanghai, and then most of the journey takes you south to the port city of Ningbo. You'll explore surprising out-of-the-way places and detour through unsurpassed scenery that only China can offer.

But there will be surprising out-of-the-way places and detours as you travel by unsurpassed scenery that only China can offer.

The route

Once you leave Shanghai you will head for Suzhou, then it's on to Wuxi, Changzhou and Yangzhou, before zig-zagging to Zhenjiang, Nanjing. Next it's world famous natural beauty and cultural heritages city via Hangzhou. After that you move on to Jinhua and Wenzhou before arriving in Shaoxing. And if you think you are near journey's end, well not quite! You'll pass through Jiajing to reach to again detour to Shanghai, before returning for the final leg to Ningbo.

The website shows you just where you will be going.

3,880 Kms in your Classic Car

World class rally

Only the best of the best make for a Classic Car rally. Mix the best of both worlds, the architectural grandeur and natural beauty of China with the design brilliance of automobile excellence from around the world, now that's what will make this rally special. You will travel to destinations not usually accessible to visitors to China. While you discover new places, the Chinese will discover the beauty of the classic car.

All inclusive

You get a structured, carefully planned tour route, that covers 3,880km—shorter for the those who can't afford the time to go to the whole distance. You get top-class accommodation in amazing places. Your car is insured to and from China. You pay just one amount—and that's for two. Know that your drink bill will be your only worry.

Expenses built in

Dining will be a delight; it's all part of the package. The chance to visit monuments, wildlife parks, historic buildings, experience local festivals, it's all inclusive. But don't forget to bring your credit cards as you are sure to want to take home more than memories and photos and film footages. Chinese antiques are still plentiful, and not sold at exorbitant prices. The rally organizers can help you obtain customs clearances.

Activity Route

Shanghai → Suzhou → Wuxi → Changzhou → Yangzhou → Zhenjiang → Nanjing → Hangzhou →
Jinhua → Wenzhou → Shaoxing → Jiaxing → Shanghai → Ningbo

A unique convoy of classics

Travel in great company

You'll be among truly great group of enthusiasts who appreciate the finer things in life, and know the difference between a Lamborghini and a Maserati.

Recall your own experiences with people who love their cars, and also know how to party.

The wanderlust is best shared with like-minded people. Car people cement friendships for life and the China experience will certainly be the perfect bond.

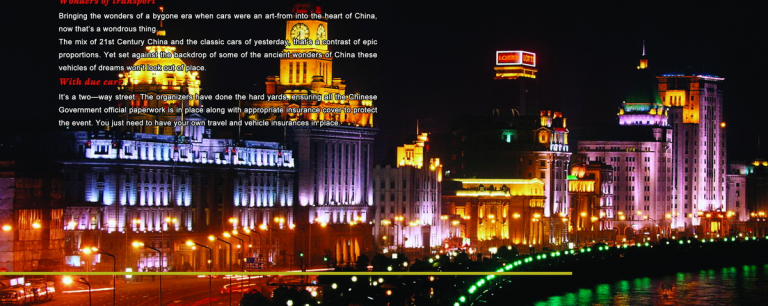

Wonders of transport

Bringing the wonders of a bygone era when cars were an art-form into the heart of China, now that's a wondrous thing.

The mix of 21st Century China and the classic cars of yesterday, that's a contrast of epic proportions. Yet set against the backdrop of some of the ancient wonders of China these vehicles of dreams won't look out of place.

With due care

It's a two-way street. The organizers have done the hard yards, ensuring all the Chinese Government official paperwork is in place along with appropriate insurance covers to protect the event. You just need to have your own travel and vehicle insurances in place.

Colour

and movement, culture and countryside, people and history

All will stimulate and tantalise your senses.

China for most of us still a mysterious and wondrous land of such complexity and beauty.

The rally opens up to you a first-hand, genuinely up-close-and-personal experience of a lifetime.

Around every corner, around every bend, the many layers of China will be revealed one at a time.

From the extraordinary topography of mountains, valleys and ravines, to ribbons of rivers in the distance, the twilight of blinking lights of villages huddled on hillsides and the garish flash of excitement as the colour of China go on display at a local festival.

Leave on the 6th October and return on 22nd October, 2011
(16 days)

16 Days of fine food, accommodation and hospitality*

Your host will spoil you

The Chinese are renowned for their hospitality and they will ensure the welcome mat is well and truly put out for you. They will endeavour to grant your every wish. If it is possible, they will try to make sure that it is done.

The cuisine of China is amazing, from Beijing Duck to Cantonese delicacies and the chili spiciness of Sichuan. Your taste buds will be in for a treat. The array of foods will reflect the provinces and regions in which you travel. It will very much recreate the spirit of the Beijing Olympics.

Locations that are a world of difference

From four-star hotel luxury to unique hideaway guest houses and retreats, the array of accommodation will surprise you, and the views from your windows will be as diverse as the terrain. Sweeping mountain peaks, broad wide plains, quaint bustling villages; the many faces of China will be revealed, today and yesterday in a contrast of epic proportions. Yet set against the backdrop of some of the ancient wonders of China, our convoy of dream vehicles won't look out of place.
